Thank You, Outgoing Directors!

At our last meeting, we celebrated the dedication and leadership of Mark Klose, Marlee Siewert, and Rod Johnson as they concluded their time on our Board of Directors.

Over the years, their vision, commitment, and countless hours of service have left a permanent mark on the JSDC and our community.

Your guidance has inspired us all, and your contributions have set the stage for continued success. While your time on the board may be ending, your impact will be felt for years to come.

Please join us in thanking Mark, Marlee, and Rod for their incredible service!

Flex PACE Updates for 2025 Approved

At its December meeting, the JSDC Board of Directors approved the 2025 request for $500,000 for the Flex PACE program, pending approval from the City and County.

Additional updates to the program were proposed and voted on. The rubric has been updated to include a header page with program details and a revised ownership requirement, now stipulating that at least 51% of investors taking part in a project must reside in Stutsman County. New evaluation criteria take into account increased property value, and the question "Have you used this program before?" has been updated to "Are you currently utilizing this program?"

The new, updated guidelines for the Flex PACE program specify that JSDC funding will be prorated based on the space occupied by the operating business, with applicants required to occupy at least 51% of the project's real estate. Storage units remain ineligible for funding. The approval process has also been revised, removing the minimum point threshold for automatic approval. Each application will now undergo review by JSDC to ensure alignment with the program's goals.

Please reach out to Alyssa Looysen with any questions about the Flex PACE program.
